

Interactive screen

Above is a sample image of what an interactive screen will look like. The user creates a rectangular shape. Afterwards, clicking on “Find COM” will give the circular object at the center of mass. Then, the user can choose the pivot point (shown by the octagon).